

Mother Love Blessing – prayer

Client Repeats after you: Father God, I ask for your forgiveness for harboring any unforgiveness towards my mother and I forgive my mother, for not being there, not nurturing me or showing me love, controlling, manipulating me through guilt or anything else such as _____. I let her go free and forgive her from my heart today. I receive your love in place of her love.

Minister: Father God, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, I break and command all unforgiveness (resentment, retaliation, hatred, violence, and murder with the tongue, along with accusation, and rebellion against your dad) to come up and go out of your heart along with all hurt and emotional pain out of your heart to go to dry places now.

Minister stands in the gap of the mother: I love you; I was so glad when I was pregnant with you, and I was so happy when you were born. I am so proud of you. You are a good daughter / good son.

On behalf of your mother:

- Will you forgive me for not telling you that I loved you and not showing you, I loved you?
- For not hugging you and holding you so that you knew you were loved?
- I am so sorry for my silence that confused you and injured you and for using silence to punish you.
- Will you forgive me for not keeping you safe?
- For not letting you know how proud I was of you?
- I am so sorry for blaming you,
- For not believing in you and being hard on you
- For not knowing or caring when you were hurting,
- Will you forgive me for criticizing you and seeing and telling you the things you did wrong – not seeing and telling you the good things?
- For not blessing you and telling you how important you are/were to me?
- For leaving you (by dying or divorce or abandonment, abandonment emotionally)
- Forgive me for not listening to you, not listening to your heart, for showing partiality to your siblings and comparing you to them.
- Please forgive me for holding on to you to fulfill my dreams and not releasing you.
